PERSONAL FACTORS

1. Identify the CB and mark its number on your CARD as listed above.
2. COMMON SENSE: Think of a practical solution you could implement to overcome it in the future.
3. Find a Scripture that supports your practical solution.
4. Build a firm conviction on this Scripture/truth by praying its truth back to God.
5. Share this decision/RESOLVE with your PE(s) as your new lifestyle.
6. When you do this, you can redeem your lost Growth Points in PERSISTENCE.

Example for CB 2: When not understanding Scripture 1 pray back Psalm 119:18, and faithfully read all the chapters for the day, whether I comprehend it or not.

ANALYSE AND START CHANGING CHARACTER THROUGH CBR

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHARACTER TRANSFORMATION THROUGH CBR

1. Identify three obvious character weaknesses in your life. Ask your friend(s) to recommend areas you could change to become more godly.
2. List down as Most Urgent those BOTH you and your friend(s) have identified as needing change and look up to God to show you how to overcome them.
3. As you read the Bible daily, observe how the Lord dealt with those with these character weaknesses and sins (or what the Bible instructs about them).
4. Note the specific instruction(s) provided in the Bible for tackling these weaknesses, and by prayer and supplication, start doing likewise to bring change.
5. Memorize a Scripture addressing each weakness. Recall, rectify, and pray back whenever the problem arises. If you do this faithfully, your character MUST change by God's grace.
6. Share what the Lord has convicted you to do about it with your PE(s), mentors or whole class, to bring positive growth in your life.
7. You will overcome these weaknesses and grow in character if you depend on God's grace through prayer while standing on the biblical conviction in your heart.

Have you ever desired to be a Systematic and Daily Bible reader, to have intimacy with God and finish the whole Bible often as a way of life? Then this course is yours. Consistent Bible Reading discipline, called CBR, is neither a talent nor a gift of the Holy Spirit; rather, it is a discipline that most people can only acquire through a structured habit formation training. We praise God for this rare revelation. If you commit yourself to this training for the next seven months, following instructions and guidelines that God has led us to develop, get ready to enjoy reading the Bible naturally for the rest of your life.

This course will equip you with the following seven key discipleship disciplines that will empower you to feast on God's Word daily in an enjoyable and fruitful manner:

1. Early Rising routine (ERT)
2. Consistent Bible Reading (CBR)
3. Scripture Memory Practice (SMP)
4. Art of Scriptural Meditation
5. Simple Bible Study Methods (PERSONS, OPEN)
6. Regular Prayer life and
7. Building Character of Perseverance

This Reference Card, which serves as the primary course manual, has been designed in a compact format to minimize production costs, as this course is offered at no charge. If you have trouble reading the small print, feel free to print it with enlarged fonts.

Praying back Scripture involves petitioning God based on what He has said in His Word. The Lord listens to us when we pray Scripture because the Word is His will (1 Jn 5:14), and He watches over His Word to perform it. As you pray, the Holy Spirit may bring new thoughts to your mind, clarifying biblical observations into profound insights, just as He did with Daniel (9:2, 22). This practice makes praying back the Scriptures a powerful method of meditation. While praying back a Scripture, you may also find yourself laughing or weeping before God as the Holy Spirit reveals the Father's good thoughts concerning you. At other times, you will plead with Him for grace to do what His Word guides you to receive specific blessings from Him. Therefore, adopt praying back the truths you discover while doing CBR devotions or Bible studies as a new spiritual discipline.

HOW TO PRAY BACK PSALM 119

This is the longest chapter in the Bible. It contains 176 verses and is divided into 22 sections of 8 verses each. You will enjoy praying back this rich Psalm to God as you follow the schedule below. You will start this practice by praying back one verse each day in the first week. Then, increase to two verses in the following week. You will continue increasing by one verse weekly to allow this new spiritual discipline to develop, enabling you to pray back larger portions of Scripture with ease and effectiveness. Additionally, you will earn 50 BONUS points by praying back and completing this wonderful Psalm.

PERSONS CHARACTER STUDY

A PERSON IS DESCRIBED BY HIS BEHAVIOUR

Several qualities can combine to maintain the discipline of reading the Bible as a habit over the years. One of these is faithfulness. When we examine Deuteronomy 6:6-10, Joshua 1:8, and 2 Timothy 3:16, among many others, it is clear that God expects us to read, meditate on, and obey His Word. If we do this faithfully, we reap the promised blessings because God remains forever faithful in keeping His covenant (Jer 1:12). Now, since whoever has been given a trust must prove faithful (1 Cor 4:2), as CBR facilitators, we resolved to rise each morning to read the Bible just as we advise other brethren to do. This decision proved wise as we encountered consistency barriers common to many in daily and systematic Bible reading and learned to overcome them. This not only provided us with knowledge but also with the moral authority to mentor and model CBR to all those we invite to partake in this discipline.

Over the years, we have identified at least nine foundational qualities that can anchor the CBR lifestyle. These qualities are listed below. You will undoubtedly encounter all of them in this course. This study aims to help you grasp their meaning and application. To prepare for a lifetime of Bible reading, you are required to study at least five of these qualities. First, read and understand the PERSONS steps. Then, write brief answers to the seven questions of this study in preparation for the group discussion. Three of these qualities are already included in the monthly learning activities schedule. Choose any other two to study and discuss as you await the commissioning ceremony.

(Refer to the study guide on the opposite page to analyze the character qualities below.)

Suggested Characters Qualities to Study

- 1. Accountability Gen 49:12, Eccl 11:9-10, Eze 18:20, Matt 25:14-30, Galatians 6:4-5, Romans 14:12
- 2. Commitment Deut 6:5, 2 Chron 16:9, Eccl 9:10, Rom 12:11, Gal 6:9, Col 3:23
- 3. Diligence Prov 10:4-5, 14:23, Dan 6:3-4, 1 Tim 4:13, Heb 6:10-12
- 4. Faithfulness 1 Sam 12:24, Dan 6:4-5, Mat 24:45-47, 25:19-30, 1 Cor 13:58
- 5. Honesty Lev 19:35-36, 1 Chron 29:17, Pro 12:3, 2 Cor 4:2, 8:21
- 6. New Self Isaiah 43:18-19, 2 Cor 5:17, Rom 6:6-7, Eph 4:22-24, Col 3:9-10
- 7. Perseverance Isa 40:30-31, Rom 5:3-4, 1 Cor 9:27, Heb 12:1-4, Jas 1:2-4
- 8. Reliability Gen 39:4-6, Pro 23:19, Matt 23:21, Luke 16:10, 1 Corinthians 4:2
- 9. Watchfulness Neh 4:9, Pro 8:34, Matt 26:41, 1 Pet 5:8, Mark 13:35-37

Observations: This step involves gathering accurate biblical information. Look for facts such as principles, names, events, stories, parables, and other intriguing details in the Bible. What does this signify?

Principles: Obtaining godly principles to live by is easy. Explore these three ways to discover principles in the Bible:

1. Look for direct statements in the Scriptures that illustrate reasons for blessings or consequences for negative actions.
11. Investigate why God blessed or cursed individuals in the Bible. (Did they uphold or break certain godly principles?)
111. Compare one Scriptural passage to another to understand or explain why certain events occurred.

Experience: Often, God uses the Scriptures you read to address your present circumstances. Listen to the Lord by reflecting carefully and prayerfully on the facts, insights, or principles you have discovered to discern His message regarding your current situation.

Need: What is your need and the cry of your heart today? Your need will be met by applying the truth or conviction that God has impressed upon you during your meditations and prayer. Therefore, prayerfully discern what God wants you to do in response to this study. This will bring blessings and prosperity from the Lord (see Jos 1:8; John 13:17, and James 1:25).

● Write down what God has prompted you to do today regarding this OPEN, fruitful study.

PERSONS Steps to Study Character Qualities

Personal perspective: This is a self-assessment of your understanding and what others say about this quality.

Q1. What does this quality mean to you when you reflect on or discuss it?

English meaning: Look up the definition of this quality in a dictionary or online (Google).

Q2. How would you define or express this quality in your own words?

References from the Bible: Study the provided Scriptures carefully to gain a spiritual understanding of the quality you have chosen to investigate.

Q3. Identify at least three biblical insights from your studied texts that add spiritual perspective to your knowledge.

Satan's opposing qualities: Based on your explored references, identify as many specific or implied negative attributes as possible that aim to counteract the attributing you have examined.

Q4. In what ways do some of these negative qualities obscure or detract from the quality you are investigating?

Obedience: Based on your new findings, describe practical ways this trait can be demonstrated in the life of a Christian.

Q5. How would you demonstrate this quality at home, in church, or the village, and how would it bring glory to God?

Note: Identify several ways to apply insights gained about this quality more specifically to maintain a consistent Bible reading lifestyle.

Q6. How can you apply this character quality to motivate you to keep CBR discipline for life?

Stirring others: Applying godly character traits makes a person very transformative for Christ.

Q7. Which of your Bible reading friends would you like to testify how to apply this quality to help them keep this priceless discipline of CBR?
